

Directions:

1. Go to Mr. Lutz's Web site and click on the Canton Repository
2. Browse through the articles until you find one that interests you.
3. You will copy this article using your copy and paste tools as well as write about this article according to the following requirements.

Requirements:

- Open a Blank Pages Document
- Save your document as 7-4 Last Name First Name
- In your header place 7-4 Canton Rep in the center.
- Also in your header place your name, period, and date on the right hand side.
- Click in the body of your paper and type the title of the article in the center, Baskerville font, and size 14.
- Copy the article from the Canton Repository web site and paste it onto your paper.
- Format your article so it is in Time New Roman, size 12, and double spaced.
- Make the article any color you wish.
- Next you will write a new paragraph with your reaction to the story (this is your opinion, what you think about the news article).
- Your reaction should be Double spaced, size 14, and in Chalkboard font, and at least five sentences long.
- Make your reaction a different color than your article.
- Add a picture to your text that has something to do with your article.
- Create a picture frame for your picture.